Pen/Stall Cleaning

Each space used by each exhibitor must be kept clean and its general appearance must be neat at all times. The aisles in all barns are to be clear of grain, hay manure and bedding. All stalls and pens, junior and senior, must be cleaned by 8:00am each day. NO EXCEPTIONS.

New!

All Ag. Hort, Floriculture and Food entries must be delivered to the fair on Tuesday.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Exhibiting livestock at the Siskiyou Golden Fair is a privilege and must be respected as such. To that end, all junior exhibitors who wish to sell and/or show at the Siskiyou Golden Fair must adhere to the Code of Conduct to be eligible to participate in the fair. This Code of Conduct covers conduct of the exhibitor from the Monday before opening day of the fair through Sunday, the last day of the fair. Violations of the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. An investigation of alleged violations will be conducted and a decision rendered by the appropriate involved parties according to the Code of Conduct Protocol. Violations may result in loss of right to sell animals at the auction.

1. All junior livestock exhibitors will refrain from any use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language during the Siskiyou Golden Fair. They will also refrain from being in the company of minors who are using alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language.
2. All junior livestock exhibitors will treat their animals in a safe and humane manner. Their animals will have the necessary feed and water during the entire time they are at the fairgrounds.
3. All junior livestock exhibitors will keep their animal pens clean and free of hazards at all times.
4. All junior livestock exhibitors will treat adults, especially those in authority, with respect.
5. All junior livestock exhibitors will follow all local and state rules that apply to their particular project(s).
6. All junior livestock exhibitors staying in the fair’s RV Park or visiting friends in the fair’s RV Park will abide by all curfews and all other RV Park rules.
7. No junior livestock exhibitors will allow an adult to perform the junior exhibitor’s duties including fitting an animal for show, cleaning pens, feeding or watering. Junior exhibitors may exchange duties with fellow club members or fellow junior exhibitors as a matter of team work.

1. All alleged violations will be charged through a written form available at the Livestock Office or Fair Administration Office. No oral complaints will be investigated, unless reported by Fair security staff to Fair Management.
2. Witnesses to the alleged violations will be contacted and interviewed. For Code of Conduct violations, witnesses may be asked to appear before the Conduct Committee in front of the accused. Conduct Committee consists of the Fair CEO, Livestock Superintendent, and one member of the Fair Board. It is in the sole discretion of the Conduct Committee whether to hold a hearing.
3. All decisions made by the CEO regarding RV Park violations will be final. Concerns regarding the CEO’s decisions may be forwarded to the Siskiyou Golden Fair Board of Directors for their next regular meeting. To be placed on the agenda, contact the Fair office immediately to meet state open meeting law time requirements.
4. All decisions made by the Conduct Committee will be final. Concerns regarding the committee’s decisions may be forwarded to the Siskiyou Golden Fair Board of Directors for their next regular meeting. To be placed on the agenda, contact the Fair office immediately to meet state open meeting law time requirements.
5. All decisions by the Junior Livestock Auction Executive Committee are final. Concerns regarding the committee’s decisions may be forwarded to the full 10th District Junior Livestock Auction Committee for their next regular meeting. The auction committee is a separate private non-profit organization that conducts the auction at the Fair.
6. All judges’ decisions are final and cannot be protested.

2006 Statewide Postal Shoot

Siskiyou County hosted the 22nd Annual California 4-H Statewide Postal Shoot. The participation from leaders, members and parents to help organize, label and score the targets was greatly appreciated. Gold, Silver and Bronze awards were presented to the top shooters in each category and age division. In addition, Siskiyou County won high team honors in Telescopic and Open Sight Rifle and .22 Hand Guns. Congratulations!

California State 4-H Updates/Info

The new Statewide 4-H Cultural Awareness and Education Taskforce is seeking interested volunteers and 4-H members. One purpose of the taskforce is to increase awareness and knowledge of staff and volunteers in the areas of: linguistic, economic, cultural, gender, age, and racial diversity within California and develop a statewide plan of action. Our first step will be to conduct an organizational assessment, and other goals will be identified by committee members. The group will meet a minimum of three (3) times this upcoming program year, starting in October. If you are interested, or would like to refer someone to this taskforce, please contact Mignonne Pollard at mypollard@ucdavis.edu or (530) 754-8517 by September 5, 2006.

The 2007 National 4-H Conference will be held March 24-30, 2007 at the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, MD. 4-H members (ages 15 and above), volunteers, and staff are encouraged to apply for this exciting opportunity for national 4-H programming. Applications are due September 30, 2006 and available at: <http://ca4h.org/conference/n4hc/>

For Youth: The 4-H Beekeeping Essay Contest, sponsored by the Foundation for the Preservation of Honey Bees, Inc., has announced the rules and essay topic, Pollinator Conservation, for this year's essay contest. There will be three cash prizes for the national winners: 1st - $250; 2nd - $100; and 3rd - $50. Each state and national winner will receive an appropriate book about honey bees, beekeeping, or honey. Completed California essays must be received on or before February 16, 2007 by Dr. Eric Mussen, Entomology Department, University of California, One Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616. The winning state essay will be forwarded to the national competition. Results will be announced on May 1, 2007.

For Clubs/Groups: Through REAL 4-H! (Refresh the Environment with Action Leaders), National 4-H Council is offering mini-grants to engage youth in hands-on, science-based, experiential learning that will develop and enhance their ability to identify and understand environmental issues in their communities while enabling them to provide leadership toward solving the issues. Through this collaboration of 4 H and Coca-Cola, grants will be awarded to county-based 4-H programs in one of three categories: water (water quality, water conservation, and/or watershed protection), recycling, or community beautification (including litter abatement). The RFP can be found at: <http://www.fourhcouncil.edu/GrantsProgram.aspx>. For more information, contact Ron Drum at rdrum@fourhcouncil.edu or (301) 961-2814. Deadline is: August 28, 2006 at 12:00 Noon EST.

2007 4-H Computer Corps applications are now available online. The Computer Corps is composed of youth (ages 15 and above), volunteers, and staff. The Computer Corps administers the state 4-H website (www.ca4h.org), conducts computer trainings around the state, and helps 4-H clubs design web pages. Applications must be completed online at: <http://ca4h.org/compcorps>. Deadline for applications is September 30, 2006.

For Clubs/Groups: The State 4-H Office is offering the Service-Learning RFP again this year. Financial support may be requested for amounts up to $5,000 for projects that contain both components of service-learning: community service and education. More information and the application are available on the state 4-H website at: <http://ca4h.org/citizenship/index.asp> under Service-Learning Request for Funding Proposal. Applications are due September 22, 2006.

The California 4-H Youth Development Program seeks 4-H members to help staff the 4-H display booth at the California State Fair from August 11-September 4, 2006. The display booth informs the public about today's 4-H Youth Development Program and its benefit to youth and communities. Small 4-H projects are welcome to accompany you (rabbits, arts/crafts, service dogs, examples of community service, record books, etc.). If you are interested, leave a message on the State Fair volunteer line at 530-754-5822 or send an e-mail to state-fair-vols@ucdavis.edu. Please include in your message: name, phone number, dates/times you are available to volunteer, and number of people in your group. Groups are booked for two-hour shifts with up to six people per shift. Any group with youth under 18 must also have two adults (18 years +) volunteering with them in the booth.

For Youth: Angel Soft's Angels in Action Awards Program aims to recognize children and youth who are performing exemplary acts of community service. For the first time since the program's inception, one outstanding child or teen will be awarded $15,000 for "Program of the Year." Two grand prize winners (one from each age category of 8-15 and 16-18) will receive $10,000 and ten finalists (five from each age category) will receive $1,000. Visit the Angel Soft website for complete program guidelines and to submit a nomination at: <http://fconline.fdncenter.org/pnd/10001785/angelsoft>. Deadline is: October 1, 2006.
